ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects (as defined in 18, U.S.C., Section 1030(e)(1)), to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by the probation officer, and if necessary, with the assistance of any other law enforcement officer (in the lawful discharge of the supervision functions of the probation officer) with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release. The probation officer shall seize any electronic device which will be subject to further forensic investigation/analysis. Failure to submit to such a search and seizure, may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other residents or occupant that their premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall refrain from the unlawful use of controlled substances and submit to a drug test within fifteen (15) days of release, and thereafter submit to random drug testing, no less than three (3) samples during the supervision period and not to exceed 104 samples per year under the coordination of the U.S. Probation Officer. If any such samples detect substance abuse, the defendant shall participate in an in-patient or out-patient substance abuse treatment program, for evaluation and/or treatment, as arranged by the U.S. Probation Officer until duly discharged. The defendant is required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (co-payment) in an amount arranged by the U.S. Probation Officer based on the ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer access to any financial information upon request.

The defendant shall assist in the collection of a DNA sample as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, pursuant to the Revised DNA Collection Requirements, and Title 18, U.S. Code § 3563 (a)(9).

Having considered the defendant's financial condition, a fine is not imposed.

A special monetary assessment in the amount of $100.00 is imposed, as required by law.
